Caroline James studied fashion and textiles at Ravensbourne College of Art, Bromley Kent. She lives in Bath where she runs Watercolour Painting Classes and the occasional Silk Painting, or Watercolour Workshop.

After running a business, C.J.P. (Caroline James Pictures) from home for several years, buying pictures for Showhomes, Hotels, and Public Houses, Caroline was passionate about painting and decided to start classes from her home. This grew and very soon the class turned to classes and were moved to the Village hall.

Caroline has had exhibitions at the Upper Swell Gallery, near Stow-on-the-Wold and more recently Lower Slaughter, Gloucestershire, as well as at "home" for The North Somerset Arts Week. Being a friend of the RWA and belonging to Clifton Art's Club and Clevedon Art's Club she enjoys being involved in artistic matters !

She has organised and tutored Painting holidays in Cornwall and Majorca, for which the feedback has been very good !
